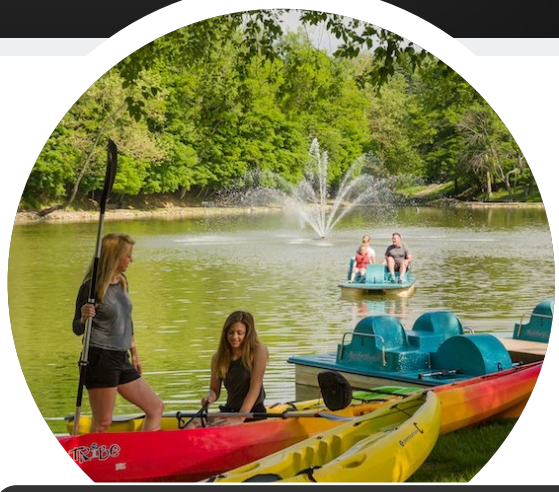
Living in Wheeling is like a breath of fresh air.

Wheeling's climate provides residents with all four seasons, which allows for year-round outdoor activities. Whether you like to hike, bike, fish, or enjoy a picnic, we have the space for you to enjoy the great outdoors.

PARKS. For a smaller city, Wheeling has plenty of parks and green spaces for our residents to enjoy. We operate over 30 public spaces and 22 neighborhood playgrounds, 15 of which have been renovated in the last three years. We also are home to Oglebay Park and Resort, the only self-supporting public municipal park in the country.

WHEELING HERITAGE TRAIL. Whether using it for transportation or recreation, the Wheeling Heritage Trail provides 18 miles of flat, paved surface that connects you to several neighborhoods in the city.

RIVERS AND STREAMS. If you like spending your time on the water, then Wheeling is where you need to be. The Ohio River provides ample opportunity to enjoy boating and fishing. Our creek system is ideal for kayaking, tubing, and canoeing while taking in a diverse view of the area as it cuts through farmland, forest, and urban landscape.



Oglebay Park visitors can enjoy a paddleboat ride, along with many other amenities.

Wheeling is the first city in West Virginia to offer a Community Bike Share Program.

The annual Wheeling Vintage Raceboat Regatta takes place on Labor Day weekend and has thousands of spectators.

Local Favorites

FITZSIMMONS FAMILY DOG PARK

"The dog park is my favorite place in Wheeling! I always run into friends and end up having conversations with strangers. The dogs are great ice breakers to get the conversations flowing and, of course, the dogs get to make friends too! Since there's so much space, it's easy to be alone too, for when you wanna read and do your own thing." - Haseeb A.

OUTDOOR YOGA

"Outdoor yoga has become one of my favorite fair weather activities in Wheeling. It's the perfect opportunity to meet up with friends or have a relaxing evening to myself." - Adeline B.

LOCAL GOLF COURSES

"The golf courses in Wheeling are picturesque, challenging for low handicappers at the tips, and yet accessible to average golfers. And the rates at Oglebay are discounted for locals, making it even easier to get it and enjoy it. So, you have these great conditions, beautiful courses designed by legends that are woven into the countryside, 10 minutes from your doorstep. It's pretty hard to beat." - Ben D.

WINTER SPORTS

"Winter sports are just one of those things you would never expect a city like Wheeling to have. When I was a student at West Liberty, working as an instructor at Oglebay was the perfect fit for me. Within 10 minutes I could be standing on the side of a slope. I was going there every week to snowboard already, so this gave me an opportunity to help work my way through college while still doing something I loved. I would spend the morning teaching kids the basics, and then could clock out, strap up, and spend the rest of the day there riding with some friends." - Dillon R.

Community Involvemnt

You can make a difference here.

The best way to change the world is by starting in your own backyard, and here in Wheeling there are plenty of ways that you can use your skills to build a better community.

One of the greatest things about living here is that there is so much potential to make a difference and to have your voice be heard. Whether you are volunteering for an organization, getting involved in city affairs, or starting something brand new on your own, Wheeling offers the space and support to explore these possibilities.

Don't just take it from us, meet a few of our residents who have found purpose through community involvement.

"When I moved to Wheeling in 2010, I didn't know much about the city, but I quickly fell in love. From the beautiful landscape to the friendly people, I couldn't help but get involved in the city-wide revitalization effort. From there, I joined various boards and committees and even went so far as to run for City Council. Now that I get to represent the city I love, I couldn't be happier. In my eyes, nowhere else is as cool or as exciting as Wheeling - and we're just getting started." - Rosemary Ketchum, Wheeling City Councilwoman Ward 3

"Men of Change is a direct response to the racial injustices that took place in 2020. Many of us felt helpless, and as Black men we are often looked to as providers and protectors. So from that feeling of wanting to do more, 14 of us came together to create a group that people can rely on to be an agent of change for our community."
-Ron S., Men of Change Member

"As a new resident in Wheeling, the Junior League of Wheeling has introduced me to countless opportunities! Opportunities to learn about our community's needs, to serve our area's vulnerable women and children, to grow as a leader, and to make life-long friends. The league is one of the many reasons why I love to call Wheeling home!"

Historic Home Buying

Wheeling is home to an incredible building stock of historic properties.

Reaching its population and industrial peak around the turn of the 20th century, Wheeling has many buildings dating to this time period.

Today, the population is nearly half what it was around the turn of the century-meaning historic homes and commercial properties are plentiful and available for those interested in anything from a complete fixer-upper to a grand finished home.

Wheeling is also home to many incentives to help potential buyers navigate the process of a historic preservation project. Ranging from local grants to federal historic tax credits, these programs can be combined, making Wheeling one of the most affordable places to take on a historic rehabilitation project.

I may not be from Wheeling, but I've never felt more at home."

"I hope my house can be an example of what's possible in Wheeling, not an exception.

It's not easy to rehab an old house, but in Wheeling, it's definitely possible. Of anywhere I've lived, Wheeling by far offers the highest quality of life. It's really special to be able to wake up in the historic home of my dreams, walk my dog along the riverside Heritage Trail, grab a coffee from a local small business on my walk to work, and have time in the evenings to get involved with my community through different organizations.

The low cost of living, minutes-long commute, and access to amenities allow me to live in a way most people only dream of." - Betsy S.
